Collective Investment Schemes in Securities (unit trusts) are generally medium to long term investments. The value of participatory interests (units) may go down as well as up and past performance is not necessarily a guide to the future. Unit Trust prices are calculated on a net asset value basis, which is the total capital value invested including any income accrual and less any permissible deductions from the portfolio divided by the number of units in issue. Income accruals are made daily and paid out monthly. Purchase and repurchase requests may be received by the manager by 10h00 each business day. Permissible deductions may include management fees, brokerage, NAMFISA levies, auditor's fees, bank charges, trustee fees and RSC levies. A schedule of fees and charges is available on request from Ashburton Unit Trust Management Company. Commission and incentives may be paid and if so, would be included in the overall costs. The FNB Namibia Money Market Fund is managed by Ashburton Unit Trust Management Company Ltd (89/485), a NAMFISA registered (25/9/5/3) Unit Trust Management Company.

Fund Commentary

December inflation readings came in at 3.1% in South Africa and 2.4% for Namibia. This is the lowest annual average inflation (2.2% for 2020) on record for Namibia (since 1973). Barring the risks of administered prices and exchange rates pressure, resulting from fiscal deterioration, inflation is expected to be contained throughout 2021, well below the target midpoint of 4.5%.

The Namibian excess bank liquidity followed its annual trend and further eroded during January, averaging well below N$1bn. This caused the local money market curve to slightly steepen, as commercial banks priced up in particular the long end, with the 12-month Wibar rate increasing by 20bpts.

The fund remains defensively positioned with a high level of liquidity. Given its duration and maturity profile, we expect a gradual decline in yield during 1Q21, which will remain attractive relative to call rates and inflation going forward.
